Liturgy of the Word

SIT

First Reading Jb 38:1, 8-11 [Lord of Creation]

God recalls for Job that he is the Lord of creation. He has the power to do things which humans cannot explain.

A reading from the Book of the Job

The Lord addressed Job out of the storm and said:

Who shut within doors the sea, when it burst forth from the womb; When I made the clouds its garment and thick darkness its swaddling bands?

When I set limits for it and fastened the bar of its door, and said: Thus far shall you come but no farther, and here shall your proud waves be stilled!

The word of the Lord.

R/ Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 107

[God's Wondrous Deeds]

R./ Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.

Or Alleluia

They who sailed the sea in ships, trading on the deep waters, these saw the works of the Lord and his wonders in the abyss. (R.)

His command raised up a storm wind which tossed its waves on high. They mounted up to heaven; they sank to the depths; their hearts melted away in their plight. (R.)

They cried to the Lord in their distress; from their straits he rescued them, he hushed the storm to a gentle breeze, and the billows of the sea were stilled. (R.)

They rejoiced that they were calmed, and he brought them to their desired haven. Let them give thanks to the Lord for his kindness and his wondrous deeds to the children of men. (R.)

Second Reading 2 Cor 5:14-17

[A New Creation]

In Christ everyone is a new creation. A new world is already born.

A reading from the second Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians

Brothers and sisters: The love of Christ impels us, once we have come to the conviction that one died for all; therefore, all have died. He indeed died for all, so that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised up.

Consequently, from now on we regard no one according to the flesh; even if we once knew

Christ according to the flesh, yet now we know him so no longer. So whoever is in Christ is a new creation: the old things have passed away; behold, new things have come.

The word of the Lord.

R/ Thanks be to God.

Alleluia Lk 7:16 [God Has Come] STAND

R/ Alleluia, alleluia.

A great prophet has risen in our midst. God has visited his people.

R/ Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Mk 4:35-41

[Christ Commands Creation]

Jesus is truly "God-with-us," and we should turn to him in faithful prayer.

R/ The Lord be with you.

R/ And with your spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark.

R/ Glory to you, O Lord

On that day, as evening drew on, Jesus said to his disciples: "Let us cross to the other side." Leaving the crowd, they took Jesus with them in the boat just as he was. And other boats were with him. A violent squall came up and waves were breaking over the boat, so that it was already filling up. Jesus was in the stern, asleep on a cushion. They woke him and said to him, "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Quiet! Be still!" The wind ceased and there was a great calm. Then he asked them, "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?" They were filled with great awe and said to one another, "Who then is this whom even the wind and the sea obey?"

The Gospel of the Lord.

R/ Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

General Intercessions

Whoever belongs to Christ is a new creation. Old things have passed away; new things have come. Longing for this newness, we turn in prayer to the Father:

(Pause)

For the Church: that those who are sent to preach, to teach, or to minister in the Church will be true witness to Jesus Christ, fearless and without compromise. Let us pray:

Give strength to your people, Lord.

For the Nations: that those who govern will protect the sanctity of life and the human rights; further the work of justice, and ensure the freedom of the suffering and vulnerable. Let us pray:

Give strength to your people, Lord.

For our Parish Community: that in our Apostolic work, if and when difficulties arise, we trust Your grace will come more abundantly and Your divine help will always be proportionate to the obstacles we face.

Let us pray:

Give strength to your people, Lord.

For those of us, who are struggling with depression, addiction, distress, oppression, ailment or financial difficulties, may our faith in you bring us peace as we undergo all trials of life knowing you are with us always.

Let us pray:

Give strength to your people, Lord.

In this Father's Day: St. Joseph, the guardian of Jesus, please kindly protect all fathers, for you know their aspirations, their hardships and their hopes. Accompany and assure those you protect that they do not labor alone, teach them how to find Jesus, our Lord, and to remain in Him. Let us pray:

Give strength to your people, Lord.

Lord Jesus, You are the head of the Church, we humbly seek Your Providence of the St. Peter Canisius International Catholic Parish, for the grace and confidence in Your presence and to be the Light to the nations. Let us pray:

Give strength to your people, Lord.

We pray for those intentions offered for the Mass and for our personal intentions ...

The Lord be with you.

And with your spirit.

Lift up your hearts

We lift them up to the Lord

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right and just

Preface VI of the Sundays in Ordinary Time

It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks, Lord, holy Father, almighty and eternal God.

For in you we live and move and have our being, and while in this body we not only experience the daily effects of your care, but even now possess the pledge of life eternal.

For, having received the first fruits of the Spirit, through whom you raised up Jesus from the dead, we hope for an everlasting share in the Paschal Mystery.

And so, with all the Angels, we praise you, as in joyful celebration we acclaim:

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts....

Eucharistic Prayer No.2

KNEEL

Praise to the Father

You are indeed Holy, O Lord, the fount of all holiness.

Invocation of the Holy Spirit

Make holy, therefore, these gifts, we pray, by sending down your Spirit upon them like the dewfall, so that they may become for us the Body and ✠ Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Lord's Supper

At the time he was betrayed and entered willingly into his Passion, he took bread and, giving thanks, broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:

Take this, all of you, and eat of it, for this is my Body, which will be given up for you.

In a similar way, when supper was ended, he took the chalice and, once more giving thanks, he gave it to his disciples, saying:

Take this, all of you, and drink from it, for this is the chalice of my Blood, the Blood of the new and eternal covenant, which will be poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.

Do this in memory of me.

Memorial Acclamation

Priest : The mystery of faith.

All : When we eat this Bread

and drink this cup,

we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

The Memorial Prayer

Therefore, as we celebrate the memorial of his Death and Resurrection, we offer you Lord, the Bread of life and the Chalice of salvation, giving thanks that you have held us worthy to be in your presence and minister to you.

Invocation of the Holy Spirit

Humbly we pray that, partaking of the Body and Blood of Christ, we may be gathered into one by the Holy Spirit.

Intercessions: For the Church
