that with the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God, with blessed Joseph, her and may praise and glorify you

Penitential Act

Do we accept the responsibility willingly
by the demands of the gospel?
Do we have the courage to risk misunderstanding because of our faith?
Let us examine ourselves:

(pause)

Lord, you have the Word of life.

It has the power to wake us up from our self contentment.

For we like to stick to our settled ways:

Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

Jesus Christ, you spoke out and you carried out your mission without fear
For we are afraid to speak and act
according to our consciences:

Christ, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy.

Lord, you loved us without reservations.

For we lack the courage to love without compromise:

Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

Have mercy on us, Lord,
forgive us our lack of understanding our cowardice and fears.

Commit us to your gospel

and lead us to everlasting life. Amen.

First Reading Jer 1:4-5, 17-19

[Call of Jeremiah]

Jeremiah is called by the Father to be his spokesman.
He will be rejected but receives the promise of God that he will support him against his adversaries.

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Jeremiah

The word of the Lord came to me, saying:

Before I formed you in the womb I knew you,

before you were born I dedicated you,
a prophet to the nations I appointed you.

But do you gird your loins;

stand up and tell them

all that I command you.

Be not crushed on their account,

as though I would leave you crushed before them; for it is I this day who have made you a fortified city,

a pillar of iron, a wall of brass,

against the whole land:

against Judah's kings and princes, against its priests and people.

They will fight against you but not prevail
over you,

for I am with you to deliver you, says the Lord.

The word of the Lord.

R/ Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 71

[Proclaim the Lord's Salvation]

R./ I will sing of your salvation.

In you, O Lord, I take refuge;

let me never be put to shame.

In your justice rescue me, and deliver me;

incline your ear to me, and save me. (R.)

Be my rock of refuge.

a stronghold to give me safety,

for you are my rock and my fortress.

O my God, rescue me from the hand of the wicked. (R.)

For you are my hope, O Lord;

my trust, O God, from my youth.

On you I depend from birth;

from my mother's womb you are my strength.
(R.)

My mouth shall declare your justice, day by day your salvation.

O God, you have taught me from my youth,

and till the present I proclaim your wondrous deeds. (R.)

Second Reading

1 Cor 12:31-13:13 or 13:4-13

[The Power of Love]

Love, the virtue of charity, surpasses all. It rises above everything. All gifts will pass away, but the supernatural virtue of love will never fail.

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians

[Brothers and sisters: Strive eagerly for the greatest spiritual gifts. But I shall show you a still more excellent way.

If I speak in human and angelic tongues, but do not have love, I am a resounding gong or a clashing cymbal. And if I have the gift of prophecy, and comprehend all mysteries and all knowledge; if I have all faith so as to move mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. If I give away everything I own, and if I hand my body over so that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing.]

Love is patient, love is kind. It is not jealous, it is not pompous, it is not inflated, it is not rude, it does not seek its own interests, it is not quick-tempered, it does not brood over injury, it does not rejoice over wrongdoing but rejoices with the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hope all things, endures all things.

Love never fails. If there are prophecies, they will be brought to nothing; if tongues, they will cease; if knowledge, it will be brought to nothing. For we know partially and we prophesy partially, but when the perfect comes, the partial will pass away. When I was a child, I used to talk as a child, think as a child, reason as a child; when I became a man, I put aside childish things. At present we see indistinctly, as in a mirror, but then face to face. At present I know partially; then I shall know fully, as I am fully known. So faith, hope, love remain, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

The word of the Lord.

R/ Thanks be to God.

Gospel Lk 4:21-30 [Preaching Salvation]
Jesus is rejected by his own neighbors. They resented his strong reminder of the past rejections of the prophets. In baptism and the sacraments we are united to Jesus. Like him we must bear our crosses.

R/ The Lord be with you.

R/ And with your spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke.

R/ Glory to you, O Lord

Jesus began speaking in the synagogue, saying: "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing." And all spoke highly of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth. They also asked,

"Isn't this the son of Joseph?"

He Said to them, "Surely you will quote me this proverb, 'Physician, cure yourself,' and say, 'Do here in your native place the things that we heard were done in Capernaum.'" And he said, "Amen, I say to you, no prophet is accepted in his own native place. Indeed, I tell you, there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah when the sky was closed for three and a half years and a severe famine spread over the entire land. It was to none of these that Elijah was sent, but only to a widow in Zarephath in the land of Sidon. Again, there were many lepers in Israel during the time of Elisha the prophet; yet not one of them was cleansed, but only Naaman the Syrian." When the people in the synagogue heard this, they were all filled with fury. They rose up, drove him out of the town, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their town had been built, to hurl him down headlong. But Jesus passed through the midst of them and went away.

The Gospel of the Lord.

R/ Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

General Intercessions

Aware of our mission in the world to be prophets of God's merciful love, let us pray to our Father in heaven to make us faithful and courageous in our task:

(Pause)

That the Church will stand before the world clothed in the light of Christ, humble and obedient to God's Word; and will keep our hope alive in the final victory of justice and truth of God's love. We pray to You, Lord:

Lord, hear our prayer.

That in the world torn by conflicts, that the lawmakers will have the courage to enact laws in accord with the true good of the peoples; and God's faithful will shine forth as a prophetic sign of unity and peace. We pray to You, Lord:

Lord, hear our prayer.

For the people without voice or deprived of their rights, that we, the Christians may have the courage to speak out for them with faith, hope and above all with love. We pray to You, Lord:

Lord, hear our prayer.

For us gathered here around the Word and the bread of the Lord, that we may experience the gospel as a message meant for today, and the Eucharist as our bond of unity in Christ. We pray to You, Lord:

Lord, hear our prayer.

Lord Jesus, You are the head of the Church, we humbly seek Your providence of the St. Peter Canisius International Catholic Parish, for the grace to be ever more attentive to You and to be the Light to the nations. We pray to You, Lord:

Lord, hear our prayer.

We pray for those intentions offered for the Mass and for our personal intentions ...

(Pause)

We pray to You, Lord: Lord, hear our prayer.

Loving Father, we turn to you in the day of distress. Incline your ear to us and save us. Through the gift of your Son a light has arisen in our lives. May we be true to that Light. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Introductory Dialogue

The Lord be with you.

And with your spirit.

Lift up your hearts

We lift them up to the Lord

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right and just

Preface III of the Sunday in Ordinary Time

It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks, Lord, holy Father, almighty and eternal God.

For we know it belongs to your boundless glory, that you came to the aid of mortal beings with your divinity and even fashioned for us a remedy out of mortality itself, that the cause of our downfall might become the means of our salvation, through Christ our Lord.

Through him the host of Angels adores your majesty and rejoices in your presence for ever. May our voices, we pray, join with theirs in one chorus of exultant praise, as we acclaim:

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts....

Eucharistic Prayer No.2

KNEEL

Praise to the Father

You are indeed Holy, O Lord, the fount of all holiness.

Invocation of the Holy Spirit

Make holy, therefore, these gifts, we pray, by sending down your Spirit upon them like the dewfall, so that they may become for us the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Lord's Supper

At the time he was betrayed and entered willingly into his Passion, he took bread and, giving thanks, broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:

Take this, all of you, and eat of it, for this is my Body, which will be given up for you.

In a similar way, when supper was ended, he took the chalice and, once more giving thanks, he gave it to his disciples, saying:

Take this, all of you, and drink from it, for this is the chalice of my Blood, the Blood of the new and eternal covenant, which will be poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.

Do this in memory of me.

Memorial Acclamation

Priest : The mystery of faith.

All : When we eat this Bread and drink this cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

The Memorial Prayer

Therefore, as we celebrate the memorial of his Death and Resurrection, we offer you Lord, the Bread of life and the Chalice of salvation, giving thanks that you have held us worthy to be in your presence and minister to you.

Invocation of the Holy Spirit

Humbly we pray that, partaking of the Body and Blood of Christ, we may be gathered into one by the Holy Spirit.
