and bring her to the fullness of charity, together with N. our Pope and N. our Bishop and all the clergy

For the Dead

Remember also our brothers and sisters who have fallen asleep in the hope of the resurrection, and all who have died in your mercy: welcome them into the light of your face.

In Communion with the Saints

Have mercy on us all, we pray, that with the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God, with the Blessed Joseph, her spouse, with the Blessed Apostles, and all the Saints who have pleased you throughout the ages, we may merit to be coheirs to eternal life, and may praise and glorify you through your Son, Jesus Christ.

Concluding Doxology

Through him, and with him, and in him, O God, almighty Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor is yours, for ever, and ever.

Amen

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Priest:

Deliver us, Lord, we pray, from every evil, graciously grant peace in our days, that, by the help of your mercy, we may be always free from sin and safe from all distress, as we await the blessed hope and the coming of our Savior, Jesus Christ.

People:

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever.

Sign Of Peace

Priest : Lord Jesus Christ, who said to your Apostles: Peace I leave you, my peace I give you; look not on our sins, but on the faith of your Church, and graciously grant her peace and unity in accordance with your will. Who live and reign for ever and ever.

People : Amen

Priest : The peace of the Lord be with you always

People : And with your Spirit.

Priest : Let us offer each other the sign of peace

Breaking of the Bread

[Adoration]

O come, let us worship God and bow low before the God who made us, for he is the Lord our God.

Penitential Act

Indeed, we try often to find joy and pleasure in things and persons that contradict God's norms and values.

Let us seek his pardon:

(pause)

Lord, you give bread to the hungry and set prisoners free:

Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

Jesus Christ, you give sight to the blind and raise up those who are bowed down: Christ, have mercy. Christ, have mercy.

Lord, you protect the stranger and you love the just:

Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

Have mercy on us, Lord, be kind to us and forgive us our false joys, our wrong trusts and help us to seek our happiness in you and your everlasting life. Amen.

Glory to God in the highest

C: Collect

[God's Protection]

Keep your family safe, O Lord, with unailing care, that, relying solely on the hope of heavenly grace, they may be defended always by your protection. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. R/ Amen.

Liturgy of the Word

SIT

First Reading Jb 7:1-4, 6-7

[Life Is Fleeting]

Job describes our life on earth. The days of our life come to a swift end. However, we are heartened by the fuller revelation of an eternal life hereafter, which Christ brought to us and about which Job did not have a clear idea.

A reading from the Book of Job

Job spoke, saying: Is not man's life on earth a drudgery? Are not his days those of a hireling? He is a slave who longs for the shade, a hireling who waits for his wages. So I have been assigned months of misery, and troubled nights have been allotted to me. If in bed I say, "When shall I arise?" then the night drags on; I am filled with restlessness until the dawn. My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle; they come to an end without hope. Remember that my life is like the wind; I shall not see happiness again.

The word of the Lord.

R/ Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 147

[Healer of Brokenhearted]

R./ Praise the Lord, who heals the broken hearted
Or. Alleluia

Praise the Lord, for he is good; sing praise to our God, for he is gracious; it is fitting to praise him.

The Lord rebuilds Jerusalem; the dispersed of Israel he gathers. (R.)

He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds. He tells the number of the stars; he calls each by name. (R.)

Great is our Lord and mighty in power; to his wisdom there is no limit. The Lord sustains the lowly; the wicked he casts to the ground. (R.)

Second Reading 1 Cor 9:16-19, 22-23

[All Things to All]

Paul writes that he must preach the gospel. Although he has no obligation to any person, he has tried to become one with his hearers to convince them of the saving message of the gospel.

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians

Brothers and sisters: If I preach the gospel, this is no reason for me to boast, for an obligation has been imposed on me, and woe to me if I do not preach it! If I do so willingly, I have a recompense, but if unwillingly, then I have been entrusted with a stewardship. What then is my recompense? That, when I preach, I offer the gospel free of charge so as not to make full use of my right in the gospel.

Although I am free in regard to all, I have made myself a slave to all so as to win over as many as possible. To the weak I became weak, to win over the weak. I have become all things to all, to save at least some. All this I do for the sake of the gospel, so that I too may have a share in it.

The word of the Lord.

R/ Thanks be to God.

Alleluia Mt 8:17

[Look to Christ]

R/ Alleluia, alleluia.

Christ took away our infirmities and bore our diseases.

R/ Alleluia, alleluia.

"Jesus helped her... [and] the fever left her."

Gospel Mk 1:29-39

[Jesus the Healer]

Jesus visits the home of Simon and Andrew. He cures Simon's mother-in-law. Jesus also expels many demons and then goes off to pray alone. When found by Simon, Jesus goes in the villages to preach the good news.

R/ The Lord be with you.

R/ And with your spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark.

R/ Glory to you, O Lord

On leaving the synagogue Jesus entered the house of Simon and Andrew with James and John. Simon's mother-in-law lay sick with a fever. They immediately told him about her. He approached, grasped her hand, and helped her up. Then the fever left her and she waited on them. When it was evening, after sunset, they brought to him all who were ill or possessed by demons. The whole town was gathered at the door. He cured many who were sick with various diseases, and he drove out many demons, not permitting them to speak because they knew him. Rising very early before dawn, he left and went off to a deserted place, where he prayed. Simon and those who were with him pursued him and on finding him said, "Everyone is looking for you." He told them, "Let us go on to the nearby villages that I may preach there also. For this purpose have I come." So he went into their synagogues, preaching and driving out demons throughout the whole of Galilee.

R/ Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

General Intercessions

Let us now pray to the Father of light that we may truly become the salt and the light of the world:
(Pause)

That the mission of the Church: in carrying out Christ's mission to spread the gospel, of taking the Good News to the very ends of the earth, with full convictions and to make use of every opportunity to spread Christ's doctrine without hesitation. Let us pray:

Graciously hear us, O Lord.

For all our government and public officials: That the light of God's law might enlighten their pursuit of justice, truth and the common good; in this pandemic crisis to set their priorities for the well being of the peoples and the nations. Let us pray:

Graciously hear us, O Lord.

On the World Day of Sick this week: introduced by Pope John Paul II - to offer prayers, to carrying out health ministry and to seek out those who are sick, especially the chronically ill and those afflicted by Covid-19, that they may encounter healing, friendship, and strength for recovery. Let us pray:

Graciously hear us, O Lord.

For our parish community that the apostolic mission we carry out may be true transmitters of the Faith: as Faith is the light which enlightens our path, stemming from the conviction that we possess Truth and Love - a manifestation of faith in Jesus Christ and the life of grace in God. Let us pray:

Graciously hear us, O Lord.

Lord Jesus, You are the Head of the Church, we humbly seek Your Providence of the St. Peter Canisius International Catholic Parish, for the grace to hold the hand of those in need and raise them up and to be the Light to the Nations. Let us pray:

Graciously hear us, O Lord.

We pray for those intentions offered for the Mass and for our personal intentions ...

(Pause)

Let us pray:

Graciously hear us, O Lord.

Loving Father, we pray that your light may shine on all the earth. However limited we are, let our words and actions reflect the light of your merciful love. Through Christ our Lord.

Introductory Dialogue

The Lord be with you.

And with your spirit.

Lift up your hearts

We lift them up to the Lord

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right and just

Preface I of the Sundays in Ordinary Time

It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks, Lord, holy Father, almighty and eternal God, through Christ our Lord.

For through his Paschal Mystery, he accomplished the marvelous deed, by which he has freed us from the yoke of sin and death, summoning us to the glory of being now called a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for your own possession, to proclaim everywhere your mighty works, for you have called us out of darkness into your own wonderful light

And so, with Angels and Archangels, with Thrones and Dominions, and with all the hosts and Powers of heaven, we sing the hymn of your glory, as without end we acclaim:

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts....

Eucharistic Prayer No.2

KNEEL

Praise to the Father

You are indeed Holy, O Lord, the fount of all holiness.

Invocation of the Holy Spirit

Make holy, therefore, these gifts, we pray, by sending down your Spirit upon them like the dewfall, so that they may become for us the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Lord's Supper

At the time he was betrayed and entered willingly into his Passion, he took bread and, giving thanks, broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:

Take this, all of you, and eat of it, for this is my Body, which will be given up for you.

In a similar way, when supper was ended, he took the chalice and, once more giving thanks, he gave it to his disciples, saying:

Take this, all of you, and drink from it, for this is the chalice of my Blood, the Blood of the new and eternal covenant, which will be poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.

Do this in memory of me.

Memorial Acclamation

Priest : The mystery of faith.

All : When we eat this Bread and drink this cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

The Memorial Prayer

Therefore, as we celebrate the memorial of his Death and Resurrection, we offer you Lord, the Bread of life and the Chalice of salvation, giving thanks that you have held us worthy to be in your presence and minister to you.

Invocation of the Holy Spirit

Humbly we pray that, partaking of the Body and Blood of Christ, we may be gathered into one by the Holy Spirit.

Intercessions: For the Church

Remember, Lord, your Church, spread throughout the world,
